PRESIDENT'S REPORT: Nancy Pugliese

I hope you all had a happy Christmas and a good new year despite Covid. I'm hoping we will be able to meet in person in March. This is our first general meeting via zoom so most reports will be sent via email tomorrow, so we have more time for our speakers today. Please review and enjoy our historian's report about our year, which is very impressive.

Some thank yous:

I want to thank everyone who helped and attended the Holiday Sale. Pat Marold and Lorraine DeFilippi for the jewelry sale. They appreciated your donations. Thank you to Mary Rottino and Sue Luterzo for the gift basket raffle at the sale. The donations helped our scholarship fund. It was suggested that we might consider doing this on a weekend earlier in December this year. Something to think about.

Another thanks to Mary Rottino and Sue Luterzo to head our nominating committee. We will find a volunteer from the general membership to work on the slate.

I want to thank Maureen Cooney and her committee. They have launched the campaign to find our candidates. Thanks to Mabel for getting our article in the Coast Star.

FYI, the porch store at my house is still in business. There are masks and notecards available. You can also leave any food for the local pantries.

Stay safe. Get vaccinated. We will see you hopefully in March. Remember we don't meet in February.

ATTENDANCE: 31 members and 3 guests attended via ZOOM.
